

Roadside Zoo Bears

Two bears, a female and a male, came to us when a roadside zoo recently shut down. Both of the bears are tame and cannot be released in the wild. Thanks to our working relationship with the Arizona Department of Game and Fish, we were approached to take these bears.

As always, we built them an enclosure that will allow them to run and play and do the things bears do in the wild